CHINA RETALIATES.

Effects of Enforcing the Chinese Exclusion Act.

INTERVIEW WITH A MISSIONARY

If Chinese Are Shipped From This Country to China Simply Because They Are Here Without Taking Out Certifications, Americans in China Will Be Likewise Deported From That Country to the United States.

NEW YORK, May 15.—The Rev. J. S. Baldwin, for 22 years a Methodist missionary in China, and for nearly a quarter of a century secretary of the missionary board of the Methodist Episcopal church, which has large moneyed interest in China, said that he had positive information from dignitaries of the Chinese government, and from his own Chinese missionaries, that if the Chinese exclusion act is carried into effect and Chinese are shipped from this country to China simply because they are here without taking out certifications, that Americans in China will be likewise deported from that country to the United States.

"If the law is declared constitutional by the supreme court," he said, "I anticipate that there will be a speedy exodus both of missionaries and merchants from China in retaliation for our sending home Chinese from the United States. Several years ago this course was urged upon the Chinese government by one of the censors who was supported in his memorial by a number of prominent officials. Li Hung Chang, at present viceroy of Chuen-Le and Sang Lung provinces, the great statesman of China, whom General Grant so heartily admired, has been very slow to come to that view of the case and very unwilling to relinquish his marked friendship for the United States. But there is strong ground for believing that this great statesman has at last come to the conclusion that the only way to defend the honor and dignity of his own nation in view of these expected acts of oppressive legislation on our part, and in view of diplomatic action to produce any remedy, is to enter upon the course of retaliation and treat Americans in China as Chinese are treated in America.

"That the Chinese government is waking up to more energetic measures is evidenced by the fact that a short time ago when the British minister claimed for British residents in China certain rights not conceded in the British treaty on the ground that they were conceded in the American treaty, and that under the favored nation clause these privileges fell to the benefit of British residents, the Chinese government replied that the treaty with the United States was no longer in existence, having been repeatedly violated by the United States that no claim could be set to its observance on the part of China, and, therefore, the British minister could claim no right for British citizens under the favored nation clause, as applying to the dishonored treaty.

"The Chinese government has quietly endured a series of oppressive enactments against its people here, contenting itself with continued and earnest remonstrances by their ministers at Washington. These remonstrances have been unheeded, and the last enactment exceeds all others in its severity in dealing with the Chinese. There was not much opposition to the extension for a new period of years of the restriction, which has been in force for the last 12 or 13 years, but there was very decided objection to the requisition that all Chinese laborers should register and take out certificates showing their right to be here, which they should always have about them to show, when demanded by any official, and also the requisition that a white witness testify to their residence in this country for the past year and to their right to be here, which implies testimony to the fact of their having been here for a time prior to the passage of the exclusion act.

"In the nature of the case it is impossible, in a very large number of instances, to secure such testimony from a white witness, and the very requirement is itself an insult to the Chinese as intimating that the testimony of their own people is not worthy of credence. So it comes about that only a few hundred out of the 100,000 in the United States have registered. It is probable Methodist church will make an appeal to the Chinese authorities in case the deportation is decided upon, in behalf of the Methodist missionaries now stationed in all of the provinces."

The Chinese consul in New York refused to be interviewed on the subject.

SELECTED HIS OWN MAN.

A Change in the Office of Vice Consul General to Paris.

WASHINGTON, May 15.—The interesting announcement comes from Indianapolis that Samuel E. Morse, the new consul general to Paris, has appointed Clyde Shropshire of Georgia vice consul general in place of R. M. Hooper, who has been connected with the office ever since the war.

The determination of Mr. Morse in this matter was awaited with some anxiety by those interested. A considerable pressure was brought to have Mr. Hooper retained, and on the other hand there was a formidable movement to secure a new man. Mr. Shropshire is said to be eminently well qualified for the position, having been a practicing lawyer in Paris for several years, and therefore acquainted with the language and business of the country.

Ready for the Execution.

LEBANON, N. H., May 15.—Arrangements for Almy's execution on Tuesday next have all been completed.

AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Another Puritanical Sabbath Observed at the Great Exposition.

CHICAGO, May 15.—Another puritanical Sabbath was observed at the fair grounds yesterday. Only a few figures moved about the grounds, and the only sound that proclaimed the presence of human beings within the gates was the tapping of hammers and the buzz of saws.

TIMELY WARNING.

All the sideshows were packed, the wild west show having at least 18,000 spectators. More than 25,000 people found their way to the grounds, despite the well advertised fact that no visitors would be admitted.

SENATOR QUAY TALKS.

Some Reasons For Closing the World's Fair on Sunday.

NEW YORK, May 15.—The World's Pittsburgh special says: United States Senator Quay said: "The Christian people of the United States are having their pockets picked by the world's fair management. By this I mean an attempt to break the agreement with congress. Over $2,000,000 was voted the fair with the distinct understanding that there would be no Sunday exhibits.

"The scheme to throw the park open on Sunday is but a wedge to have everything going in full blast on that day. By opening the park and charging 25 cents admission the exposition management throw themselves liable to a demand for the return of the money given by congress. I am in favor of the park being open, but want no admission fee to get in or out."

Massachusetts' Move.

BOSTON, May 15.—The Massachusetts Protective league, in anticipation of opening the world's fair on Sunday, have asked Attorney General Olney to prevent the move by injunction.

RECENT INDIAN TROUBLE.

The Governor of Colorado Explains How It Occurred.

DENVER, May 15.—Governor Waite has transmitted a communication relative to the recent Indian troubles, in which he recites in very plain language the causes that have led to the outbreaks, and directly charges the Indian agents with negligence and incompetency. He says: "From the best information I can get the outbreak in New Mexico was the result of abuse and insults by drunken and renegade Indians. The periodical troubles in Colorado result from the fact that the Indians are allowed by the United States Indian agents to wander away from the reservations. There are two causes which induce the Indian agents to let the Indians leave their reservations: "First—The rations go right along. Practically it costs the United States just as much to support the Indians when away from the reservation as when at home and the real but not apparent difference is pocketed by the thrifty Indian agent.

"Second—Indians take this vacation in an annual hunt and contrary to their customs before they were restricted to reservations; they destroy all game in these excursions, killing it for the hides. They usually sell these hides to the same thrifty Indian agent, who gives them a written permit to leave the reservation."

The governor closes by appealing to the president to issue an order absolutely prohibiting the Indians from leaving their reservations for hunting privileges in Colorado.

LOCOMOTIVE ENGINEERS.

Meeting of the Brotherhood at Schenectady, New York.

SCHENECTADY, May 15.—This town is full of railroad engineers, who are here in attendance upon the union meeting of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers. The morning session was behind closed doors, but in the afternoon the meeting was open to the public.

Senator David B. Hill was introduced and gave a clearly defined expression of his views on labor organization in general and the brotherhood in particular. Chief Arthur spoke at length, explaining the system upon which the order was conducted. The brotherhood, he said, was not organized for the purpose of dictating or coercing, but to adjust in a satisfactory manner questions which must of necessity arise so long as capital and labor exist.

Revolutionists Gaining Ground.

PANAMA, May 15.—Advices from Nicaragua show that the revolutionists are gaining ground and daily are becoming more aggressive. San Juan Del Sur and the country towns up to Granada are in their hands. Goito is being fortified by the government to resist the expected attack from San Juan. The opposing forces are massing at Masaya. Two battles fought near Masaya have resulted in favor of the revolutionists, whose superior artillery caused the government troops heavy losses.

VESSELS COLLIDE.

Great Disaster in the British Channel.

TWENTY-FIVE LIVES LOST.

Only Two Saved Out of a Crew of Eighteen and Nine Passengers—Dozens of People Drowned in Russia—Other Dispatches From Across the Ocean.

LONDON, May 15.—The captain of the steamship City of Hamburg, which has just arrived at Swansea from Hamburg, reports that at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon his vessel collided in a fog off Trevose Head, coast of Cornwall, with the ship Countess Evelyn, bound with passengers and iron ore from Bilbao, Spain, to Newport, Wales.

The captain of the Countess Evelyn jumped aboard the City of Hamburg, and Mate Richards crawled to her through a hole in the Countess Evelyn's quarter. Ninety seconds later the Countess Evelyn went under with her crew of 16 and with nine passengers.

Boats were lowered at once from the City of Hamburg, but the search in the fog proved almost useless. Seaman Jarbin was picked up, but he died in a few minutes after having been brought aboard the steamship. The dead body of a little girl was also found. Otherwise the attempt at rescue was without result.

The lost passengers were the English wife and the son and daughter of a Spanish gentleman in Bilbao, Mrs. Williams, her son and infant daughter; two men named Barton, and a Londoner whose name has not been ascertained.

The steamship Ataka, which has just arrived at Cardiff, was damaged Saturday in a collision with an unknown ship off Lund Isle. The Ataka's captain thinks that the other vessel went down with all on board.

Dozens of People Drowned.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 15.—A small ferryboat on the River Msta, near Borovitchee, government of Novgorod, became unmanageable in midstream and was swept from her course by the current. The passengers who filled her deck were panic-stricken. The surging of the crowd made the boat lift and several passengers jumped overboard. Others launched a boat, which was at once overcrowded and swamped. Dozens of persons are known to have been drowned and many more are missing. About a fifth of the passengers made no effort to leave the boat and were saved.

Hungarians Indignant.

BUDA PEST, May 15.—Baron Bauer, Austro-Hungarian minister of war, has forbidden soldiers to wear their uniforms at the unveiling of the Honved monument. His reason is that the ceremony is political and not military. The order has excited the indignation of the Hungarian opposition.

Chandelier Falls.

PARIS, May 15.—During a dinner yesterday evening at the house of Finance Minister Perival, the chandelier fell to the table. M. Challeme-Lacour, president of the senate, was cut on the head. His physician says that the wound, although severe, is not dangerous.

All Going Well.

ATHENS, May 15.—King George received M. Sotiriopolos and expressed his approval of his proposed financial policy. The cabinet has been completed and the chamber will be called to meet shortly.

Bankers Combine.

BERLIN, May 15.—Seventeen bankers have signed an appeal for an election fund with which to promote the choice of Liberal candidates supporting the government.

Presented With a Golden Scepter.

SOFIA, May 15.—Citizens of Tirnova have given to Prince Ferdinand a golden scepter. Elaborate preparations are making for the opening of the sobranje.

Free of Cholera.

PARIS, May 15.—Quimper and L'Orient have been officially declared free from cholera.

LAI'D TO REST.

Funeral Services Over the Remains of the Late General S. C. Armstrong.

FORT MONROE, Va., May 15.—The funeral of General S. C. Armstrong took place in the Memorial chapel on the Normal institute grounds at Hampton. Saturday afternoon, and brought together a large body of prominent citizens, army officers and distinguished educators from the north. The church, which was crowded, was handsomely dressed with flowers.

The religious services were conducted by the Rev. H. B. Frissell, chaplain of the institute; Rev. J. J. Grovett, rector of St. John's church, Hampton, and the Rev. Dr. Cheney of Boston, a lifelong acquaintance, all of whom paid glowing tributes to the sterling integrity and worth of their dead friend. The students, who were seated in the rear of the chapel, sang several hymns.

The body was then placed on a caisson covered with the American flag, and drawn to its last resting place by a detachment of students. A military escort of six batteries of artillery from the fort, headed by the post band playing a dirge, followed the body, the students' teachers and friends bringing up the rear. The honorary pallbearers were members of the Legion of Honor.

NEW YORK, May 15.—It is alleged as a bit of inside history of the big crash in National Cordage that James B. Keene is $1,500,000 winner.

ANOTHER BREAK.

More Destruction Done by the Overflowed Arkansas River.

MEMPHIS, May 15.—The second crevasse in the Arkansas levees has just occurred. This break is about four miles below the first on Lake Port crevasse and is located 1,000 feet north of Brooks Mill, about the scene of a similar crevasse, the first to occur last year. The Brooks Mill crevasse is 50 feet in width and widening rapidly.

One hundred and forty head of cattle are crowded by the water on the narrow stretch of levee between the two breaks and have so trampled upon the already weak levee that the entire section of embankment is reported to be very unsafe, it being stated officially by the secretary of the board of the Mississippi commissioners, General S. W. Ferguson, that other breaks in that vicinity are threatened. The Lake Port crevasse, which occurred Thursday morning, is said to have widened to 600 feet.

The Arkansas levees, especially on the Crittenden place, unless worked upon and raised, will be overlapped by a further rise of three inches. The gauge is 45.97, a rise of seventeen hundredths of a foot in the past 24 hours. A steady rain is now falling.

FLOODS IN OREGON.

The Columbia, Snake and Other Rivers Overflowed.

PORTLAND, Or., May 15.—There is every indication of unprecedented floods along the valley of the Columbia the Snake and tributary rivers within the next month, owing to the unprecedented heavy snowfall last winter. At present the snow is melting in the lower foot hills but several feet yet remain higher up where at this date in May is usually bare ground. The small streams in every part of the country are now rising rapidly.

A correspondent from Harvey, Wash., telegraphs: "All the bridges on the Colville river from its mouth 40 miles up, have been washed away except one. The snow is still four feet deep on the mountain side."

All reports from eastern Oregon contain information of deeper snow than usual.

The water is higher in the Willamette river in this city than on this date in any previous flood year.

A NOBLE ENTERPRISE.

The Red Cross Estate in Indiana for the Benefit of Suffering Humanity.

MITCHELL, Ind., May 15.—Miss Clara Barton, president, and Mr. J. B. Habbell, secretary of the American Red Cross association, accompanied by Dr. Joseph Gardner, the donor of the large tract of land of which the society is the beneficiary, are here on a tour of inspection to the Red Cross station, located four miles north of Mitchell. Residence building, stables and warehouses are erected or in course of construction.

The farm will be stocked with a herd of fine horses and cattle, fitted with most improved agricultural inventions and appliances, cultivated in a thorough and scientific manner, harvests and products applied to the alleviation of suffering and unfortunate humanity in times of famine, fire, flood or other public disasters. Railroad and telegraphic connection will be established, insuring prompt notification of calamities occurring, and securing immediate and direct transportation facilities to the afflicted community. Valuable deposits of the famous Lawrence county oolitic limestone are located within the boundaries, which will be quarried and contribute greatly to the resources of the association.

This plot of earth, to which the renowned and charitable president is making her first visit, possesses the only righteous claim to strict neutrality in the universe, granted and guaranteed by 46 nations and governments under a sealed compact. It is near the exact center of population of the United States, and the fruits of its cultivation will be open to the suffering humanity of the world.

DEATH IN AN ENGINE CAB.

Two People Killed and Several Fatally Injured by a Boiler Explosion.

READING, Pa., May 15.—Two persons were killed and several seriously injured by the explosion of a locomotive on the Lebanon Valley branch of the Philadelphia and Reading railroad, at Lebanon. The killed are:

Levi Yocum, engineer, of this city; John Yocum of Lebanon, aged 14, a nephew of the engineer, who had got on the engine to see his uncle.

The injured are: George Sallada, conductor, of Reading, probably fatally; William Louden, a boy of Lebanon, who was riding on the engine, fatally; William Anspach, crossing watchman, fatally injured. The latter's daughter, Annie, aged 18, who had just brought her father's dinner, was also seriously and perhaps fatally injured. Isaac Bearn of this city, front brakeman, severely injured. Several persons living a square away were slightly injured.

Political Situation in Rhode Island.

PROVIDENCE, May 15.—The Republicans elected a senator in North Smithfield Saturday which gives them, with lieutenant governor, 55 votes in the next general assembly. This constitutes a majority in grand committee and enables them to elect Republican state officers unless further complications arise by the unseating of Republicans by the Democratic house. If Republicans are unseated the senate will refuse to meet the house and a hold-over government will be the result.

Made an Assignment.

DULUTH, May 15.—Gill & Wright, proprietors of the Duluth Roller mills, have assigned to F. W. Paine, cashier of the Security bank. The assets are $75,000 to $100,000; liabilities $87,000.

DASHED TO DEATH.

Fate of Ten Timbermen In a Michigan Mine.

FELL THREE THOUSAND FEET

Several Hours Elapsed Before the Bottom of the Perpendicular Shaft Could Be Reached and the Fate of the Unfortunate Men Known.

HOUGHTON, Mich., May 15.—Ten timbermen were dashed to pieces in Red Jacket perpendicular shaft of the Calumet and Hecla at noon Sunday. The miners were coming up in the cage to dinner and the engineer hoisted the cage against the timbers of the shaft when the coupling pin broke and the men and cage dashed downwards over 3,000 feet to the bottom.

The names of the killed are: Allen Cameron, son of Captain Cameron, in charge.

James Cocking, single, supporting a widowed mother.

Joseph Pope, leaves widow and one child.

John O. Dogers, leaves widow and several children.

John Hicks, single, aged 24.

Andrew Edno, aged 40, married.

Robert Whopia, leaves widow and three children.

Michael Leavitt, widower.

James Trevni, leaves widow and three children.

Con Sullivan, single, aged 40.

There was no way of reaching the bottom nor getting the men out swept by going through another shaft half a mile away, so that it was nearly three hours before the true state of affairs could be ascertained, and it was several hours afterwards before the bodies could be brought to the surface. The coroner is now making a thorough investigation.

PHILADELPHIA FIRE.

One of the Largest Hotels in the City Badly Damaged.

PHILADELPHIA, May 15.—A fire caused by a defective flue in the bake house of the Aldine hotel badly gutted the building last night and caused a loss estimated at about $140,000. The 120 guests in the house and the servants escaped uninjured after an exciting experience.

The Aldine hotel is on Chestnut above Nineteenth street and is one of the largest hotels in the city. There was about 125 guests in the hotel, among whom were many prominent business and professional men. A. A. McLeod, ex-president of the Reading, road had fine apartments on the second floor.

The servants were first awakened and scattered through the house arousing the sleeping guests. Awakened from a sound sleep and ignorant of how near the danger might be, nearly all the guests rushed from their rooms with but little on except their night dresses.

To add to the terrors of the situation the electric lights went out and the darkened halls were filled with shrieking women and frightened men, groping through smoke towards the stairs. Pushing, jostling and scrambling the terrified crowd made its way down the dark stairs to the street, and all providentially escaped.

When the firemen arrived they soon got the flames under control, but not before the roof was burned off and the house thoroughly flooded with water. The furnishings of the hotel were valued at $112,000, the damage on which is estimated at $90,000, on which there is $90,000 insurance. The building is owned by the J. B. Lippincott estate and is damaged to the extent of $30,000.

The International Convention Brought to a Close.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 15.—The international convention of the Young Men's Christian association has closed. A fellowship meeting was held at the Young Men's Christian association hall in the morning, and after this the visitors scattered to the various churches, the pulpits of which were filled by the visiting ministers.

In the afternoon a men's meeting was held at the Tomlinson hall, where the principal address was made by Dr. L. W. Munhall. Ex-Postmaster General Wanamaker came in during the meeting and made a brief address. Some remarks were made by others, with a prayer at the last and a parting hymn.

At night a farewell service was held at Tomlinson hall, addressed by a number of the leading ministers in attendance.

FOUR BULLETS.

That Is What a Green Goods Man Got for Buncoing Pennsylvanians.

NEW YORK, May 14.—Joseph and Robert Hall of Steelton, Pa., came to New York with $650, with which to buy green goods. They saw samples of the goods, got a satchel supposed to be filled with counterfeit bank notes, which could not be told from good money, lost their cash, and then Joseph Hall shot one of the green goods men, George Phillips.

The shooting was done in a Green Point restaurant, where the Hall brothers were taken by the green goods men. The wounded man is not likely to die, although he has four holes in him. The Hall brothers did not want to tell where they came from, saying their relatives included some of the best people in Pennsylvania. As their return tickets on the Pennsylvania railroad were from Jersey City to Steelton, the police believe they came from that town.

CHICAGO, May 15.—A crowd estimated at 50,000, mostly Germans, gathered at Humboldt park Sunday afternoon to witness the unveiling of a bronze statue of Fritz Reuter, the poet.

SIMPLE FACTS ABOUT GOLD.

"There are certain important points respecting the gold situation which are not generally understood," says the New York World.

"The only present use the Government has for gold is for the redemption of its notes when presented. Very few of them, comparatively, are likely to be presented, because so long as they are certainly redeemable nobody wants them redeemed except those who desire gold for shipment.

"The $100,000,000 reserve is ample to meet all demands for a long time to come, even should our export demand continue without abatement.

"But the export demand cannot long continue. Europe pays a dollar in something for every dollar sent out of this country, and as Europe must buy large quantities of grain, meat and cotton of us, her capacity to pay for gold at the rate of two or three millions a week cannot long endure.

"Finally, should the gold reserve run down towards the bottom, the Treasury can immediately replenish it by selling bonds. The credit of this country is the very highest in the world. Its bonds are worth more than their face in gold, and if offered would be taken up eagerly for gold.

"The only thing that could produce a real crisis as to the matter would be doubt either of the ability or of the fixed purpose of our Government to pay all its paper in gold on demand. There is nowhere any shadow of doubt on either point, and so there is absolutely no danger in the fact that a temporary outflow of gold has compelled the Treasury to use some part of the $100,000,000 reserve for the purpose for which it accumulated. Nor is there the least occasion for an issue of bonds, seeing that our gold supply is ample for all present needs."

This seems to be a good time for bank wreckers to get in their work. They can lay it all on the "stringency in the money market."

The failure of two banks at Chicago last week carried down quite a number of smaller concerns in Ohio and Indiana. Their troubles are all attributed to "stringency in the money market," but the Louisville Times' Chicago correspondent speaking of the collapse of the Chemical National says: "The more the developments in the failure come to light, the more it seems there was the hand of a Schwartz or a Masonic's savor in the 'management.'"

A MAJORITY of the Sinking Fund Commission has decided that the convict labor of the State could not be temporarily leased as desired by the Mason-Ford Company, and the labor is to be advertised for permanent lease. "Honor to whom honor is due." Had it not been for Governor Brown, Auditor Norman, Attorney General Hendrick and Treasurer Hale would have given the Mason-Ford Company a temporary lease of from 100 to 500 convicts under a contract that the Governor demonstrated wasn't much of a contract at all as far as the State's interests were concerned.

Mrs. JOHN LANE and son and daughter, of Washington, were coming down Third street, west of Wall, Saturday at noon in a buggy, when a portion of the harness broke allowing the vehicle to run against the horse, frightening him. The animal dashed down the street and ran into a stairway leading to the residence of Mr. Fred Bauer, throwing Mrs. Lane and her daughter out and bruising them badly. The son escaped unhurt. Mrs. Lane was taken to the residence of Mr. James Clarke and a physician summoned, who dressed her injuries, after which she was removed to the residence of her sister, Mrs. A. Honan. She was able to be taken to her home yesterday.

The elevator was loaded with twenty-five kegs of nails and fell from the second floor to the cellar.

WHEREAS, The Executive Committee of this association is sadly reminded of the death of one of its members, which has occurred since its last annual sitting, by the conspicuous absence of Mr. Charles Bland, of the Sardis precinct, be it Resolved, That in the death of Mr. Bland this board has had taken from it a most pleasant and genial associate, a conservative and wise counselor, and an honorable member; that the association has lost a staunch advocate of the equity of its principles and the economy of its plan; that his constituency, his immediate neighbors and friends have been deprived of a most worthy officer and faithful representative. An Important Decision.

The following extract from a decision of the Court of Appeals, delivered by Judge Pryor in the case of Hall vs. Commonwealth, from the Pike Circuit Court, is of more than ordinary interest. Judge Pryor said:

The election of Circuit Judges on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1892, was valid whether or not the act of the Legislature regulating the election of judges at that time was in accordance with the provision of the Constitution. And as the provision of the Constitution directing the election to be held at that time is imperative, it was not necessary that there should be an emergency clause to the act of the Legislature regulating the election.

Mr. James N. Boyd, of Dover, will have fifty acres of tobacco raised on his farm this season.

The Flemingsburg Times-Democrat "hits the nail on the head" in the following: "Let us have a diversity of interests, so that the prosperity of the country will not be altogether dependent on the staples of corn, wheat and tobacco."

The Price Current says: "The marketing of hogs the past week has fallen short of expectations. Total Western slaughtering 200,000, compared with 245,000 the preceding week, 255,000 last year and 210,000 in 1891. From March 1 the total is 1,665,000, against 1,990,000 last year—decrease, 325,000 hogs; the decrease for the week, 55,000. Returns generally indicate satisfactory quality. Under the good demand that has prevailed prices have been advanced during the week, and at the close average about 25 cents per 100 pounds higher than a week ago, or approximately $7.55 as the average for Western markets now operating.

NOT PASSED YET.

The Charter for Fourth Class Cities Still Hanging Fire—Other Legislative News.

The charter for cities of the fourth class has not yet been passed by the Legislature.

It was taken up in the House Saturday, as unfinished business. Though the members from all the counties in which the towns interested are located favored the bill, there was no inconsiderable amount of opposition to the passage of the bill because of a provision which it contains making the payment of taxes a qualification for suffrage. It was also claimed that if municipal elections are held on the same day general elections are held, a city ticket and general ticket being voted for at the same hour, in secret ballot, would make the qualification inoperative. The opponents of the bill refused to vote on it and a quorum was broken.

Finally it was agreed to let the bill be made a special order for Tuesday.

The Senate bill to prevent interference by any person with railroad traffic and transportation was reported without amendment and was given its first reading in the House.

The Judiciary Committee reported adversely Mr. Spalding's bill to empower fourth-class towns, which fail to elect trustees at the regular elections, to hold special elections for same, and the adverse report was sustained. The committee made a report in which the opinion was expressed that the bill was unconstitutional; that the old Boards of Trustees, upon a failure to elect a new one, would continue in office till November, and that their acts would be valid and lawful.

Mr. Stephenson introduced a bill amending the private corporation law. The bill provides that trust companies may be organized in towns with a population of 40,000 and less upon a capital of $25,000, or upon a capital of $50,000 in all cities with a population between 40,000 and 100,000. The law now makes it capital of $50,000 and $75,000 respectively.

Mr. Hissem's bill to prevent pool selling and book-making was set down as a special order for next Wednesday. Mr. Hissem claimed that in his absence upon the day the bill was reported from the committee, he was treated unfairly by members who tried to kill it without his having a chance to defend it. He served notice on the friends of pool rooms that he expected to push it vigorously.

Mr. Henry Warren, the fisherman of the West End, found a dead turtle on the river shore near Poyntz's distillery Friday that measured about two feet across the back and was nearly four feet long. It was the largest turtle ever seen hereabouts.

Noah Smith and Jack Rose and Misses Lula and China Dunn from Jacktown, Bourbon County, tried to get married at Paris but were unable to secure license on account of their youthfulness. They then left for Cincinnati. The parents objected on account of their age.

Miss Sarah Ball died Saturday at 10:30 a. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mitchell on East Second street, in the sixty-eighth year of her age. She had been in feeble health for years, and her condition had been critical for several days. Deceased was a sister of the late T. K. Ball and James M. Ball. The funeral occurs this afternoon at the Baptist Church, services by the pastor, Rev. R. G. Patrick. Interment in the Maysville cemetery.

The Ohio State Board of Charities has inspected the jail and infirmary at West Union and found both in very bad condition. The jail, which is one of the oldest in the State, has but three cells that can be utilized, and watchmen are necessary to keep the murderers confined in them from pushing out the walls and walking off. In these three small cells as many as seven prisoners have been confined at one time. Only a liberal use of disinfectants makes the place at all habitable. The infirmary is in equally bad condition, and is a veritable fire-trap. The Commissioners will be required to take some steps in the matter soon.

The following is an extract taken from Sam Jones' closing sermon at Owensboro last week: "If you want to be good, pitch in and God will help you. If you want to be bad, pitch in and the devil will help you. An engineer don't have to have steam enough to carry him twenty miles before he starts his engine. He gets up steam as he goes. If he had to get up enough steam to run all the way before starting, it would blow his boiler all to pieces. A little fellow says to me, 'if I had religion enough to carry me all the way to heaven I would join the church. You little fool, you! If you crowded all that religion into your little soul it would burst into a thousand pieces.'"

NEXT Wednesday the forty-sixth annual convocation of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky, K. T., will begin its session at Mammoth Cave. Sir Knight E. A. Robinson, of this city, is the present Grand Senior Warden.

THE C. and O.'s freight and passenger business at Catlettsburg in April amounted to $8,872.10, an increase of $4,716.21 over same month of previous year. Passenger business $2,861.10, an increase of $1,533.05 over last year.

THE latest scheme talked of at Lexington is to build electric railways connecting that city with Paris, Versailles and other surrounding towns. It is claimed that the fare for traveling on such roads would be much less than the toll now paid on turnpikes.

AN interesting and very enjoyable service was held at the M. E. Church last night, the occasion being the anniversary of the Epworth League. The League from Aberdeen came over and attended in a body, the ferryboat making a special trip to accommodate the crowd.

TWO or three months since we mentioned the fact that the drug firm of Stevenson & Myers, of Aberdeen, was in trouble and that Doctor Stevenson was in this place for the purpose of protecting his interests. The suit entered at the time was heard in our courts last week, and the Doctor, through his attorney, W. F. McBeth, recovered a judgment against his partner for $376.55.—Georgetown News-Democrat.

CONGRESSMAN BERRY has been after the scalp of Postmaster Hardeman, of Covington, for some time and it looks like he will soon have it dangling at his belt. He has filed charges against Hardeman in which he says: "As Postmaster he receives a compensation of $2,900; his wife, as Assistant Postmaster, receives $1,300; his son, a mail-carrier, $850, and they have also an old gray horse, worth about $50, which they have owned, on the pay-roll for $250 per annum. They have persistently refused to have any but Republicans discharge any of the duties, and have required them to contribute to campaign funds."

TEN THOUSAND SUBSCRIBED.

If You Want Stock in the Proposed Tobacco Factory Now's the Time to Secure it.

The committee appointed to solicit subscriptions to the capital stock of the proposed tobacco factory company met with much encouragement Saturday.

Altogether about $10,000 has so far been subscribed. The sum of $20,000 is desired.

The members of the committee, Messrs. M. C. Russell, John Duley and Thomas A. Keith, are all too busy to-day to call upon you, but the subscription paper is in the hands of Mr. Duley at the State National Bank. He will gladly show you the paper and receive your subscription.

The subscriptions are made on the condition that if the perfected plans are not satisfactory to the subscribers they are not to be bound by their act.

MISS YATES, VEGETARIAN.

A Banquet at Which Nothing in the Meat Line Will Be Found.

NEW YORK, May 15.—Among the passengers on the steamer Arizona, which is expected here within the next few days, is Miss May Yates, the organizing secretary of the London Vegetarian society. Miss Yates, who is also the founder and honorable secretary of the Bread and Food Reform league, comes to this country to make arrangements for the vegetarian congress to be held at the Chicago fair in the first week of June.

The New York Vegetarian society, of which Mr. John Walter Scott, the well known philatelist, is president, has under consideration the propriety of tendering Miss Yates a reception on her arrival. From statements made by Mr. Scott the cause of vegetarianism is in a most flourishing condition. The number of its adherents is steadily on the increase, especially in England and Germany. In the latter country there have been 19 new societies organized during the last three months.

Great things are expected at the Chicago congress. There will be addresses, resolutions and declarations and banquets, at which the menu will consist of the humble potato, the succulent lettuce, the homely cabbage, the blushing carrot, the aristocratic pea, rare fruit and the thousand and one food preparations which abound in the cereal west.

The enthusiasts will gorge themselves in honor of Miss Yates and the large delegation from the other side which, it is expected, will accompany her, and the rest of the world will read about it all and probably stick to their old time food.

OGDEN, U. T. May 15.—One of the results of the trans-Mississippi congress that adjourned in this city on the 28th of last month, is the organization of a national silver paper. W. H. The first number of the paper will appear about June 10. Mr. Harvey has left for Chicago, where the paper will be published.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHLOE,
Conway, Ark.

The Centaur Company, 77 Murray Street, New York City.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
